

Summary of changes to Renewable Energy Consumer Code V8

Section	Change	Reason for change
Whole Code	References to arbitration changed to adjudication throughout	Change of scheme from arbitration to adjudication
Section 9.1.3	Change of section title from Independent Arbitration Service to Renewable Adjudication Service	Change of scheme from arbitration to adjudication
	Removal of reference to Arbitration Act	No longer applicable
	Change of information about where application for adjudication can be found	Simplifying code information as, when new scheme is launched, application form for CEDR will be available on the CEDR website and given by RECC
	Information added explaining two outcomes following adjudication (if consumer chooses to accept decision or not)	Change of scheme from arbitration to adjudication
	Removal of express references to fees	Allows for flexibility/ change as we settle into new ADR offering. Fees will be very clear in relevant guidance and all information given to the parties of a dispute
10.1	Slight tweaks to text to remove specific references to monitoring activities and to include link to the Monitoring Strategy	Information was out of date and did not make reference to the strategy
Glossary	Remove definition of Independent Arbitration Service Add definition of Renewable Adjudication Service	Change of scheme from arbitration to adjudication
C2 The laws, guidance and codes that apply to this Code:	Removal of Arbitration Act	No longer relevant